- Trace the dotted lines from left to right

Tracing practice section consisting of eight rows of handwriting lines. Each row is defined by a solid top line and a solid bottom line. The first row of each pair contains a solid line with a black dot at the start and a right-pointing arrow below it. The second row of each pair contains a dotted line with a black dot at the start, followed by a dashed line with a black dot at the start, and another dotted line with a black dot at the end.
