

“Evaluate Yourself before You Are Evaluated by Allah” – Umar ibn al Khattab
(رضي الله عنه) May Allah be pleased with him

Name: _____

Class & Sec. _____

Questions		Ramazan Kareem
My daily Sunnah Practices		1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1	I start my day with Duaa
2	I use Miswak before performing Wudoo
3	I Say ‘Assalamu-Alakum warahmatulahi wabarakatuhu’ when I meet Muslims
4	I speak good things or remain silent
5	I recite Holy Quran daily
6	I convey Islamic teachings to my friends and relatives
7	I say Duaa when going out and coming back home
8	I control my anger even during difficult times
9	I offer my prayers regularly.
10	I help someone by giving charity
11	I make du’aa for the sick and feed the hungry
12	I respect my elders (including teachers and parents)
13	I choose good things for others which I like for my self
14	I do not harm or bully others
15	I keep myself in a state of Taharah (cleanliness) always
16	I sit when I eat and drink
17	I dust my bed and sleep on my right side
18	I say Darood Shareef daily
19	I fill my stomach only 1/3 and leave 1/3 for water and 1/3 for air
20	Say Alhamdulillah when I finish my work

I understand the value of practicing Islamic teachings on a daily basis, so I promise to myself that I will try my best to continue take care of all my religious obligations Inn Shaa Allah.

My daily Sunnah Practices

Note:

- Take Print out of evaluation sheet 03
- Discuss this sheet with the parents.
- At the end of every day/week keep filling it with full consciousness of Allah.
- Compare your filled sheet 02 with sheet 03
- Identify the areas you need to improve.
- The main objective of this sheet is to motivate student's progress and help them to cover the weak areas so they become a true Momin.